Gwendolyn Watanabe Inducted into Cambridge Who's Who Executive, Professional and Entrepreneurial Registry

Palo Alto, CA, May 19, 2008, Gwendolyn Watanabe, General Partner at Saratoga Ventures. L.P., has been recognized by Cambridge Who's Who for showing dedication, leadership and excellence in all aspects of investment planning.

Saratoga Ventures. L.P. is a leading provider of medical devices, venture finance, business development, client relations, start-up operations management, and fund administration. Ms. Watanabe boasts 15 years of professional experience and has distinguished herself through her talent for managing medical devices investments. She is responsible for promoting private ventures, fundraising, and preparing financial and venture investment reports.

Prior to her current position, Ms. Watanabe served for Nellix, Bacchus Vascular and AneuRx. She considers attaining her current position to be her greatest professional accomplishment. She remains current with professional trends by attending conferences at the Society for Vascular Surgery and Stanford Biodesign. She feels that new technologies should be implemented to overcome current issues faced in the medical industry.

Ms. Watanabe earned her MBA from Harvard University in 1999, her Master's Degree in Mechanical Engineering from Stanford University in 1994 and her Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering in 1993. She is affiliated with the Harvard Alumni Association and the Stanford Alumni Association.

An authority on investment planning, Ms. Watanabe is available to speak with the media and may be reached via e-mail at gwen@saratogaventureslp.com.
